2008 Event Report

2008 Poet In Motion

Alan Fry and Alan Hills campaign a beautiful blue convertible Bentley Corniche on the MSA Euroclassics. Not only is their car 'poetry in motion' but on the 2005 MSA Euroclassic, Alan Hills showed his talent as a 'poet in motion'. This year he was our Euro Laureate again, with his ode being performed at the last night dinner by Ian Coomber, with the able assistance of the entire audience.

Late on in our September
With the Summer fading fast
We turned our thoughts to Norway
With its coastline deep and vast

Our journey took us Northwards
Via mountains, lakes and seas
Towards the very ARCTIC
Passing rock outcrops and trees

Now classic cars, a challenge, they always do enjoy
They are tinkered with and pampered, just like a naughty boy
They shine, they moan, they tremble, as they wait their turn, each one
This fascinating journey, to the land of the midnight sun

On more specific issues, our story will unfold
With cars of all descriptions and drivers brave and bold
We had Bentleys, Porsches, Rovers, there were Jaguars galore
Mustang and Ace came with us, and many, many more

With trees the hue of amber
More precious than even gold
More valuable than silver
For our eyes to behold

Great waterways encountered
Vast bridges to be crossed
Deep tunnels by the dozen
Yet not one car was lost

A country full of beauty
Of character and myth
We saw it all this autumn
A treat not to be missed

Two days we spent in Sweden
On our way home, I recall
The autumn chill stayed with us
With the leaves about to fall

THE MSA EUROCLASSIC

---

The Mercedes and the Triumphs
Volvo and Elans
All returned home safely
Thanks to Brit Assist and their vans

So thank you Euroclassic for another great event
We can now look back with pleasure
With our savings wisely spent
I will always recall the sunshine
And the welcome at our doorway
And the lovely time we all did share
In this great land of Norway.
